

PROFESSIONAL RATE CARD

KOCT has provided video production services since 1984. We produce a significant variety and volume of programming every year – documentaries, community events, talk shows, promos, commercials, television news magazines, government meetings, sports and parades. KOCT has been acknowledged nationally, regionally and locally for its excellent, award-winning productions. Working closely with our clients from inception to completion, our professional staff manages all phases of pre-production, production and post-production to deliver a high quality product. We customize our quote to fit your budget.

KOCT stays on the cutting edge of technology, utilizing the latest industry advances in hardware and software. With one of the largest television studios in North San Diego County, KOCT can accommodate a 40-member audience. Our studio features a state-of-the-art control room, climate control, chroma key set, lighting board, new well-equipped lighting grid and 5 HD Panasonic cameras.

KOCT's sophisticated, new digital mobile studio deploys up to five cameras for productions in the field. An experienced crew travels with the mobile studio to your location to document productions with video, motion graphics, audio, lighting and engineering.

Thank you for your interest in KOCT. Please give us a call. We look forward to answering your questions and working with you.

Oceanside Community Service Television Corp is a nonprofit 501 (c) (3) organization doing business as KOCT. When individuals and organizations like you use KOCT video production services, we are able to support our primary mission which is to provide quality community programming for Oceanside and North San Diego County.

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

KOCT's new community calendar service allows non-profits, service groups, and local organizations to promote and publicize their events on television for an affordable monthly or annual fee. KOCT is available in 80% of Oceanside Homes on Cox Cable. KOCT is also available county-wide on AT&T's U-Verse Channel 99 and streams both channels 'live' via KOCT.ORG on the internet. KOCT's Community Calendar will be shown on Channel 18 throughout the week and on weekends (Channel 18: Monday thru Saturday at 9 am & 5pm & on Sunday at 9am).

Entry Level Price

Users of this new service will be able to update their 30-50 words or fewer messages once per week via e-mail. The Annual Fee for this service is a membership as a friend of KOCT at the Cameraman level ($120 annually) or above.

Additional Services

For an additional $200 one-time fee KOCT will design a custom page for a club or group who want their logo, address and contact information on a creative canvas to which their weekly message will be added.

Or, users can provide their own custom pages that conform to our specified requirements: JPEG, 4x3 Aspect ratio.

In order to initiate each of these services, make an update to your material, or if you just need more information contact KOCT at (760) 722-4433, koct@koct.org.

The "Update Form" can be downloaded at:
<http://koct.org/services#communitycalendar>
